PROGRAM SPEAKER & ENTERTAINMENT

Steve Thomas — Understanding Weird People

4:00–5:30 p.m.

Steve Thomas is MSCA's highest-rated conference speaker.

Steve spoke at our MCAI Annual Meeting in 2016, and we are excited to have him join us again. Steve assists organizations to build leadership, create teams and improve the workplace culture. With Steve you can expect a conversational style that's fun, engaging and gets your creative wheels turning.

Leading your team to sustained success has never been more important. In addition to client challenges, you must also manage differing personalities and the difficulties that technology can impose on personal relationships. The common thread to achieving success in all these areas is connection. In this unconventional session, Steve will teach you how to understand what makes people so different as well as how to navigate through the complexities of human weirdness. Taking it another step further, you'll also learn simple ways to serve and lead your team effectively, and how to get everyone to take on a leadership role. You're sure to leave with new insight on what leadership truly is and how you can make profound impact with your most valuable resource — your people.

Ivan Pecel — Comedian

8:00–9:00 p.m.

“Making Juggling Tolerable”

Ivan brings the term “high energy” to an entirely different level by delivering an unforgettable show unlike anything you have seen before.

As funny as a stand up comic, and as skilled as a Chinese acrobat, Ivan has appeared on Comedy Central, America's Got Talent and the Tonight Show with Jay Leno. This is why he is a favorite among corporations, colleges, trade shows, comedy clubs, cruise ships and on the Las Vegas Strip. Whether Ivan is blindly kicking a flaming torch over his head, juggling ping-pong balls using only his mouth, or having you laughing so hard that you should have worn adult diapers to his performance, his show is sure to delight.

Ivan's show is guaranteed to change your mind about juggling. His comedy will have you rolling and his skills will have you amazed. If you didn't love this art form before his show, you will after his show.
